

Brink's Advances ATM Managed Services Strategy through Partnership with Sainsbury's

September 25, 2024

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 25, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The Brink's Company (NYSE:BCO) today announced a long-term ATM managed services agreement with Sainsbury's. Under the terms of the deal, NoteMachine, a Brink's Company, will assume ownership and management of Sainsbury's ATM business, which includes around 1,370 ATMs positioned in retail stores across the United Kingdom. The ATM network will be fully managed by NoteMachine, incorporating the full range of ATM managed services capabilities, including transaction processing, cash replenishment, maintenance, engineering, monitoring, parts supply and hardware refurbishment. The onboarding is expected to be completed by May 2025.

Mark Eubanks, President and CEO of Brink's said: "Our partnership with Sainsbury's further validates our capabilities in ATM managed services. This agreement aligns perfectly with our mission to make banking easier, more convenient and accessible for all. We are excited to be working with Sainsbury's and we look forward to building on the strengths of both companies as we continue to innovate and enhance the way customers access financial services."

Simon Roberts, Chief Executive Officer of Sainsbury's, said: "We are really pleased that we can keep offering our customers free access to cash at all of our existing locations while also simplifying our banking business and reducing our costs. We're confident that NoteMachine is the right partner for us and our customers."

About Sainsbury's

Offering delicious great quality food at competitive prices has been at the heart of what we do since John James and Mary Ann Sainsbury opened our first store in 1869. Today, inspiring and delighting our customers with tasty food remains our priority and our purpose is clear – we make good food joyful, accessible and affordable for everyone, every day.

Our focus on great value food and convenient shopping, whether in-store or online is supported by our brands – Argos, Nectar, Tu Clothing, Habitat, Sainsbury's Bank and Smart Charge. Sainsbury's has almost 600 supermarkets and over 800 convenience stores. Argos is a leading digital retailer and is the third most visited retail website in the UK, with over 70 per cent of its sales starting online. Argos is conveniently available for customers to collect from hundreds of Sainsbury's stores. Digital and technology enables us to adapt as customers shop differently and our profitable, fast-growing online channels offer customers quick and convenient delivery and collection capability.
