FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Brink's Receives Regulatory Clearance for Dunbar Acquisition

Acquisition Expected to Close by August 31

RICHMOND, VA., August 7, 2018 – The Brink's Company (NYSE:BCO), the global leader in total cash management, secure route-based logistics and payment solutions, today announced that the required waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976 ("HSR") has expired with respect to the proposed acquisition of Dunbar Armored, Inc. As a result of the expiration of the antitrust review, completion of the acquisition will not require any asset sales or other operational restrictions. The acquisition, which is subject to other customary closing conditions, is expected to close by August 31.

Doug Pertz, Brink's president and chief executive officer, said: "We are pleased with the positive outcome of the HSR review and look forward to a rapid execution of our plan to integrate these two great companies. We're more confident than ever that Dunbar's strong management, experienced employees and customer-focused culture will have an immediate positive impact on our efforts to achieve operational excellence and accelerate profitable growth in our U.S. operations."
