MMI ANNOUNCES DIRECTOR NOMINEES TO THE BRINK'S COMPANY BOARD

NEW YORK, NY, November 30, 2007 - - MMI Investments, L.P., the second largest stockholder of The Brink's Company (NYSE: BCO) with 8.4% of the shares outstanding, today announced its four director nominees for election at the 2008 Annual Meeting of Brink's.

Clay Lifflander, Portfolio Manager of MMI, stated, "We believe the director slate we've nominated is well qualified, with a breadth and depth of business experience to maximize value for all Brink's stockholders. We are not seeking control of the board. We simply believe that the board as currently composed has demonstrated that it lacks the security industry perspective, strategic alternatives acumen and stockholder representation necessary to protect and maximize the value of Brink's stockholders' investment."

"Our nominees fill major gaps in the experience and skillset of the current directors, particularly as the board has limited direct Wall Street experience and no expertise in the security industry, other than Chairman, CEO & President Michael Dan. We believe these voids in the board are partly responsible for Brink's inability to address its persistent undervaluation or to optimize its business through internal development, M&A, a split-up of the company or other transactional activity. We have compiled a slate that addresses these shortcomings and that is, we believe, objectively preferable to the incumbent slate, purely on its merits and apart from the incumbent board's long-term underperformance."

"MMI recognizes that election of our slate means the removal of Michael Dan from the board. If we are successful, MMI would support expansion of the board by one seat and Michael Dan's reappointment."

MMI's director nominees for the 2008 annual meeting of stockholders are:

John S. Dyson

Mr. Dyson is Chairman of MCM Capital Management, LLC (the general partner of MMI Investments, L.P.) and Chairman of Millbrook Capital Management Inc., an investment firm that manages private equity and indirect investments for the Dyson Family and MCM's executives. Mr. Dyson was previously Chairman of the Board of Key Components LLC, a diversified manufacturing corporation, from 1997 through 2004 (SEC registrant from 1999 through 2004), and a Director of Wallace-Murray a Fortune 500 company. Mr. Dyson is a former Vice Chairman of Dyson-Kissner-Moran (one of the oldest private equity firms in the country), former New York State Commerce Commissioner and former New York City Deputy Mayor for Finance & Economic Development under Mayor Rudolph Giuliani.

Peter A. Michel

Mr. Michel is a recognized leader in the security services industry, and was formerly CEO of Brink's residential security monitoring subsidiary, Brink's Home Security (BHS). During his tenure at BHS, Mr. Michel transformed the company from a $26 million security firm to a $258 million leader in high-tech home protection services. Under Mr. Michel, BHS grew from a company of 66,000 customers in 22 U.S. markets to over 700,000 customers in 100+ markets covering 42 U.S. states and two Canadian provinces, and achieved record operating profit every year of his tenure. Mr. Michel currently serves as President, CEO and Director of iSECUREtrac Corp. (OTC: ISEC), a producer of electronic monitoring products for, and service provider to, the corrections market using Global Positioning Satellite (GPS) technology. Previously, Mr. Michel was Chairman of the Homeland Security Advisory Council, a think tank sponsored by the Security Industry Association.

Robert J. Strang

Mr. Strang currently serves as the CEO of Investigative Management Group serving major financial institutions, Fortune 500 companies, large law firms and high net-worth individuals and families. Mr. Strang began his law enforcement career in 1979 with the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D.C., graduating in 1980 from the Department of Justice's Special Agent Basic Training class. From 1980 to 1989, Mr. Strang was a Special Agent with the Drug Enforcement Administration. In 1989, Mr. Strang teamed up with fellow DEA agent Ann Hayes to form Strang Hayes, a premier security firm specializing in corporate investigations and due diligence that was later sold to SPX Corporation (NYSE: SPW). Mr. Strang is currently Chairman of the New York City Civil Service Screening Committee and is on the Board of Directors for D.A.R.E. America and its Executive Committee. Mr. Strang also serves on the Board of Directors of New York City's Economic Development Corporation and is a member of its Governance, Loan and Legal Affairs Committees. Mr. Strang is currently co-chair of the New York State Legislature's Anti-Terrorism Task Force. In 1993, Mr. Strang was appointed a member of New York City Mayor Rudolph Giuliani's transition team, serving as Chairman of the Drug Enforcement, Treatment & Prevention Taskforce. He also has served as a consultant to the New York State Senate Investigative Committee.

Carroll R. Wetzel, Jr.

Mr. Wetzel currently serves as a member of the board of directors of Exide Technologies (NASDAQ: XIDE), a manufacturer of batteries used in transportation, motive power, network power, and military applications. Mr. Wetzel was previously a Director of Laidlaw International, Inc. (NYSE: LI), a North American transportation services company, and Chairman of the Board of Safety Components International, Inc., a supplier of automotive airbag fabric and cushions and technical fabrics. Mr. Wetzel was selected to serve as Chairman of Safety Components International by that company's major stockholders. From 1988 to 1996, Mr. Wetzel was a Managing Director with the Merger & Acquisition Group of Chemical Bank/Chase Manhattan, having been recruited to build that practice. Mr. Wetzel was responsible for all aspects of that effort, including designing the business's strategy, hiring seasoned bankers from established Wall Street firms and training junior associates, soliciting clients, and negotiating and closing transactions. From 1981 to 1988, he was a Managing Director in Smith Barney's Mergers and Acquisitions Group. Mr. Wetzel is a member of the Board of Directors and head of the Finance Committee of the Henry L. Stimson Center, a Washington based non-profit, non-partisan think tank, concentrating on international security issues.

MMI, which first purchased Brink's shares in 2003, has throughout its tenure as a Brink's stockholder publicly released its views of Brink's potential strategic alternatives, beginning in 2005 with its demand for a sale of Brink's BAX Global subsidiary, which subsequently was sold for approximately $1.1 billion.
